

LINGISM

Meaning: Lingism refers to the discrimination or bias against individuals based on their language or linguistic characteristics, often impacting cultural identity and social interactions in multilingual contexts.

1. Lingism can significantly influence cultural identity and social dynamics within multilingual communities.
2. The rise of lingism in educational policies has sparked debates about language rights and access.
3. Many argue that lingism perpetuates inequality by privileging certain languages over others in public life.
4. Activists are working to combat lingism by promoting the value of linguistic diversity and inclusion.
5. Understanding lingism is essential for addressing language-related discrimination in various societies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lingism>