LINGUIST

Meaning: A linguist is a person who studies language, its structure, and its various forms, including dialects and syntax.

1. The linguist analyzed the complexities of regional dialects in the study.
2. She became a renowned linguist after publishing her groundbreaking research on syntax.
3. During the conference, the linguist shared insights on the evolution of language over centuries.
4. His career as a linguist allowed him to travel the world and study various language families.
5. The linguist's passion for phonetics drove her to explore the sounds of endangered languages.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/linguist