LINGUISTICALLY

Meaning: Linguistically refers to matters related to language, especially in terms of its structure, use, or diversity.

1. The two cultures are linguistically diverse, reflecting various historical influences.
2. She approached the problem linguistically, examining the nuances of each language involved.
3. Linguistically, the region is fascinating due to its blend of indigenous and colonial languages.
4. The research team focused on the linguistically rich aspects of the community's heritage.
5. His ability to think linguistically allowed him to master multiple languages with ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/linguistically