

LINIMENT

Meaning: Liniment is a topical preparation, often containing medicinal ingredients, used to soothe or relieve pain in muscles and joints.

1. After a long day of hiking, she applied a soothing liniment to her tired muscles.
2. The liniment's strong, herbal scent filled the air as he rubbed it into his sore back.
3. Many athletes keep liniment in their bags to help relieve pain and stiffness after intense workouts.
4. The doctor recommended a natural liniment to help reduce inflammation from his recent injury.
5. She found that the liniment provided immediate relief, allowing her to enjoy the rest of the evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liniment>