

LIPOTHYMIC

Meaning: LIPOTHYMIC: relating to a temporary state of faintness or a feeling of weakness and lightheadedness, often preceding fainting.

1. After a long day in the heat, she felt a brief wave of lipothymic sensation wash over her.
2. The doctor explained that lipothymic episodes can often be mistaken for fainting spells.
3. During the lecture, he experienced a lipothymic moment that left him momentarily disoriented.
4. Lipothymic symptoms can manifest in various ways, including dizziness and a feeling of impending collapse.
5. He attributed his lipothymic episode to dehydration and stress from the hectic week.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lipothymic>