

LIPOTHYMOUS

Meaning: Lipothymous: characterized by a temporary loss of consciousness or faintness, often due to a sudden drop in blood pressure or other physiological factors.

1. The patient exhibited lipothymous episodes, prompting further investigation into their underlying causes.
2. After a long day at work, she felt a sudden lipothymous sensation, nearly fainting in the process.
3. During the marathon, several runners reported feeling lipothymous as they approached the finish line.
4. His lipothymous reaction to the shocking news left everyone around him concerned.
5. The doctor explained that lipothymous experiences could be triggered by dehydration or a lack of nutrients.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lipothymous>