

LIPOTHYMY

Meaning: Lipothymy refers to a temporary state of faintness or lightheadedness, often accompanied by a feeling of impending loss of consciousness.

1. Lipothymy can be a concerning symptom for those who experience it unexpectedly.
2. After a long day in the heat, she felt a wave of lipothymy wash over her.
3. The athlete attributed his lipothymy to dehydration during the intense competition.
4. Doctors advised him to seek medical attention if he experienced frequent episodes of lipothymy.
5. Understanding the causes of lipothymy can help individuals manage their health better.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lipothymy>