

LIPPED

Meaning: Lipped (adjective): having a defined or prominent edge or border, often used to describe the shape or appearance of objects or features.

1. The lipped edges of the vase added an elegant touch to the overall design.
2. She wore a bright red lipstick that accentuated her beautifully lipped smile.
3. The ancient pottery featured intricately lipped rims that suggested skilled craftsmanship.
4. His lipped remarks during the meeting hinted at his dissatisfaction with the project.
5. The children laughed as they watched the lipped seal perform tricks at the aquarium.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lipped>