

LIPPITUDE

Meaning: Lippitude refers to a quality of liveliness or vividness, often characterized by expressive and engaging presentation.

1. The artist's lippitude was evident in the way she captured the vibrancy of the sunset.
2. He spoke with such lippitude that everyone in the room was captivated by his stories.
3. Her lippitude transformed a mundane meeting into an engaging and memorable experience.
4. Despite the serious topic, his lippitude brought a light-heartedness that eased the tension.
5. The novel's lippitude shone through the protagonist's witty observations and clever dialogue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lippitude>