

LIPSE

Meaning: 'Lipse' refers to a delicate or fragile state of something, often associated with beauty or transience, as seen in flowers wilting or the nostalgia evoked by an old photograph.

1. The sudden drop in temperature caused the lipse of the delicate flowers to wilt unexpectedly.
2. Her lips curled into a smile as she recalled the lipse of the old, faded photograph.
3. It was difficult to discern the lipse of the original text among the many layers of edits.
4. As the artist painted, she was careful to capture the lipse of emotion on the subject's face.
5. The historian noted the lipse in the manuscript that hinted at a forgotten legend.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lipse>