

LIQUORICE

Meaning: Liquorice is a sweet-tasting extract or flavoring derived from the root of the Glycyrrhiza glabra plant, often used in candies and beverages.

1. The sweet aroma of liquorice filled the air as she opened the package.
2. He always enjoyed a cup of tea flavored with liquorice root for its unique taste.
3. Children in the candy store were drawn to the colorful liquorice twists displayed on the shelves.
4. Many people either love or hate the distinct flavor of liquorice, with little middle ground.
5. The herbal benefits of liquorice have made it a popular ingredient in traditional medicine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liquorice>