

LIQUOROUS

Meaning: LIQUOROUS: having the qualities or characteristics of liquor; intoxicating or suggestive of alcohol.

1. The liquorous aroma of the aged whiskey filled the room, enticing everyone to indulge.
2. His liquorous laughter echoed through the halls, a testament to his boisterous nature.
3. She always avoided the liquorous gatherings, preferring quiet evenings at home instead.
4. The novel depicted a liquorous society where indulgence overshadowed responsibility.
5. Despite his liquorous tendencies, he managed to maintain a successful career and a loving family.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liquorous>