

LISPER

Meaning: A lisper is a person who has difficulty pronouncing certain sounds, particularly 's' and 'z', resulting in a speech impediment.

1. The lisper struggled to pronounce certain words clearly during the speech.
2. After years of therapy, the lisper finally felt comfortable speaking in public.
3. Children often teased the lisper, not understanding the challenges they faced.
4. In the drama club, the lisper embraced their unique voice, captivating the audience.
5. Her endearing lisp made her sound even more charming when she read aloud.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lisper>