

LISPINGLY

Meaning: LISPINGLY: in a manner characterized by a speech impediment that affects the pronunciation of 's' and 'z' sounds, often resulting in a playful or endearing quality.

1. She spoke lispingly, her words tumbling out in a playful, endearing manner.
2. The child lispingly recited his favorite nursery rhyme, drawing smiles from everyone around.
3. He lispingly asked for help, his shy demeanor making the request even more charming.
4. As she lispingly introduced herself, her confidence began to shine through despite her speech.
5. The actor delivered his lines lispingly, adding a unique twist to his character's personality.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lispingly>