

LITERALLY

Meaning: Literally: in a manner that is exactly true and not exaggerated; used to emphasize the reality of a statement.

1. I literally jumped out of my seat when I heard the news.
2. She was so excited that she literally danced all the way home.
3. The book was so gripping that I literally couldn't put it down.
4. He was so tired that he literally fell asleep in his dinner plate.
5. When she said she was freezing, she meant she was literally shivering in the cold.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/literally>