

LITERATION

Meaning: Literation is the repetition of the same initial consonant sounds in a sequence of words to create rhythm and emphasis.

1. The poet's use of alliteration gave the verse a musical quality that entranced the audience.
2. In her speech, the politician employed clever alliteration to emphasize her key points and make them memorable.
3. The children's book was filled with playful alliteration that made reading fun and engaging for young readers.
4. With each line, the author skillfully wove alliteration into the narrative, enhancing the imagery and rhythm.
5. The marketing team decided to use alliteration in their slogan to create a catchy and unforgettable brand message.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/literation>