

LITHER

Meaning: LITHER: (adjective) characterized by a graceful, agile, and flexible movement.

1. The dancer moved with a lither grace, captivating everyone in the audience.
2. As I watched the cat leap from one branch to another, I marveled at how lither it was than most animals.
3. Her lither frame made it easy for her to navigate through the narrow spaces of the ancient ruins.
4. In the early morning light, the lither silhouettes of the trees danced gently in the breeze.
5. To perform the complex choreography, the athletes trained tirelessly to become more lither and agile.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lither>