

LITHIC

Meaning: Lithic refers to objects made of stone, particularly tools or artifacts from prehistoric times.

1. The archaeologists discovered a lithic tool that dated back to the Stone Age.
2. Her research focused on the lithic artifacts found at the ancient settlement.
3. The museum's new exhibit showcases lithic carvings from prehistoric cultures.
4. He was fascinated by the lithic materials used in early human construction techniques.
5. The study of lithic technology provides insights into early human behavior and adaptation.
6. The archaeologist examined the lithic tools found at the ancient site.
7. In geology, the term lithic refers to rock fragments or stones incorporated in sedimentary formations.
8. The museum's exhibit showcased a variety of lithic artifacts from prehistoric cultures.
9. Her research focused on the lithic technology used by early human societies in their daily lives.
10. The paleontologist noted the lithic characteristics of the fossils discovered in the sediment layer.
11. The archaeologists uncovered a lithic tool that dated back thousands of years.
12. Her passion for lithic analysis led her to study ancient stone artifacts found in the region.
13. The museum's exhibit featured a remarkable collection of lithic implements from various prehistoric cultures.
14. Researchers often use lithic technology to gain insights into the daily lives of early humans.
15. The study of lithic materials can reveal important information about the migration patterns of ancient peoples.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lithic>