LITHODOMUS

Meaning: LITHODOMUS is a genus of marine clams that are capable of burrowing into rock surfaces and are often used as indicators of seafloor ecosystem health.

1. LITHODOMUS clams are known for their unique ability to burrow into rock surfaces.
2. The presence of LITHODOMUS in marine ecosystems can indicate the health of the seafloor environment.
3. Researchers are studying the behavior of LITHODOMUS to understand its role in bioerosion.
4. Fossilized remains of LITHODOMUS provide valuable insights into ancient marine habitats.
5. Conservation efforts often focus on protecting the habitats of LITHODOMUS due to their ecological significance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lithodomus