

LITHOGLYPHER

Meaning: A lithoglyphers is an artisan or craftsman who carves designs or inscriptions into stone surfaces.

1. The lithoglyphers of ancient civilizations often carved intricate designs into stone surfaces.
2. In her art class, she learned the techniques of a lithoglyphers, using specialized tools to etch patterns.
3. The museum showcased a rare collection of works by famous lithoglyphers from the Renaissance era.
4. Studying the methods of lithoglyphers reveals a fascinating blend of artistry and technical skill.
5. He aspired to become a lithoglyphers, inspired by the timeless beauty of stone engravings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lithoglypher>