

LITHOGLYPHIC

Meaning: Lithoglyphic refers to engravings or carvings made in stone, often used in the context of ancient art or inscriptions.

1. The ancient ruins featured lithoglyphic engravings that told stories of a long-lost civilization.
2. Archaeologists were excited to uncover a lithoglyphic tablet that provided insights into prehistoric art.
3. In her analysis, she noted the intricate details of the lithoglyphic designs carved into the stone.
4. The museum's new exhibit showcased lithoglyphic artifacts that highlighted the craftsmanship of early humans.
5. During the expedition, the team discovered lithoglyphic markings that could revolutionize our understanding of early writing systems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lithoglyphic>