

LITIGIOUSLY

Meaning: Litigiously: in a manner relating to or characterized by legal action or lawsuits.

1. The company decided to respond litigiously to the allegations made against it.
2. He approached the dispute litigiously, eager to prove his point in court.
3. Litigiously inclined individuals often prolong conflicts that could be resolved amicably.
4. The attorney warned her client that pursuing the case litigiously could be costly and time-consuming.
5. In a litigiously charged environment, even minor disagreements can escalate into major lawsuits.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/litigiously>