

LITURGICS

Meaning: Liturgics is the study and practice of the forms and rituals of public worship within a religious tradition.

1. Liturgics plays a crucial role in shaping the worship practices of a religious community.
2. The study of liturgics often involves examining historical texts and their interpretations.
3. Her deep understanding of liturgics allowed her to create a more meaningful worship experience.
4. In many seminaries, students are required to take courses in liturgics to prepare for ministry.
5. The evolution of liturgics reflects the changing cultural contexts of religious expression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liturgics>