

LIVERIED

Meaning: LIVERIED: Adorned in a distinctive uniform or attire, often associated with a specific service or organization.

1. The liveried drivers awaited their passengers outside the grand hotel.
2. At the gala, the guests were greeted by liveried attendants serving champagne.
3. The royal family arrived in a procession of liveried coaches, each adorned with the crest.
4. He admired the liveried staff who moved gracefully through the ballroom, enhancing the evening's elegance.
5. The airline's liveried personnel efficiently guided travelers through the check-in process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liveried>