LIVERYMAN

Meaning: A liveryman is a member of a guild or organization, often involved in the trade of horses or related services, who may also display a coat of arms.

1. The liveryman proudly displayed his coat of arms at the annual guild dinner.
2. In the bustling marketplace, the liveryman offered his services to those in need of fine horses.
3. After years of apprenticeship, he finally earned his title as a respected liveryman in the city.
4. The liveryman's expertise in horse care made him a sought-after figure among local nobility.
5. As a liveryman, he was responsible for ensuring that all carriages were well-maintained and ready for use.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/liveryman