

LIVIDNESS

Meaning: LIVIDNESS: the quality or state of being intensely angry or furious.

1. Her lividness was evident in her clenched fists and furrowed brow.
2. The lividness in his voice made it clear that he was not going to tolerate any more excuses.
3. Despite her usual calm demeanor, her lividness erupted when she learned about the betrayal.
4. The lividness of the painting captured the turmoil of the artist's emotions during that period.
5. In the heated debate, his lividness overshadowed the importance of the topic at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lividness>