

LIXIVIATION

Meaning: Lixiviation is the process of extracting soluble constituents from a solid by washing with a liquid, often used in the context of mineral extraction from ore.

1. Lixiviation is a critical process in the extraction of valuable minerals from ore.
2. The engineers studied the lixiviation technique to enhance the efficiency of their mining operations.
3. During the lixiviation process, contaminants were carefully monitored to prevent environmental damage.
4. The success of the lixiviation method depended heavily on the composition of the soil and water used.
5. Researchers are exploring new chemicals to improve the lixiviation process in the recycling of metals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lixiviation>