

LLAPS

Meaning: LLAPS (noun): A sharp, sudden sound or series of sounds, often rhythmic, produced by a musical instrument or movement.

1. The sudden llaps of the drum echoed through the concert hall, capturing everyone's attention.
2. In the dance performance, the llaps of the dancers' feet created a mesmerizing rhythm on the stage.
3. As the rain began to fall, the llaps against the window provided a soothing backdrop to my reading.
4. The llaps of the waves against the shore were both calming and invigorating as we walked along the beach.
5. With each llaps of thunder, the storm seemed to grow closer, heightening our sense of anticipation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/llaps>