

LOADING

Meaning: Loading refers to the process of placing items onto a vehicle or platform for transportation or the display of a screen while data is being prepared for use.

1. The loading screen seemed to last forever, causing our excitement to wane.
2. She watched as the truck was loading boxes of supplies for the charity event.
3. After loading the dishwasher, he pressed the start button and walked away.
4. The game was still loading when her friend called to ask if she wanted to join.
5. With careful precision, he was loading the fragile items into the moving van.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loading>