

LOAFER

Meaning: Loafer: a person who avoids work or effort, often spending time idly or aimlessly.

1. He spent the whole afternoon as a loafer, lounging on the couch with no plans in sight.
2. Despite his talent, he was often labeled a loafer for his lack of ambition in pursuing a career.
3. The park was filled with loafers enjoying the warm sunny day and chatting with friends.
4. She dismissed his advice, calling him a loafer who never took life seriously.
5. Loafers are comfortable shoes that can easily transition from casual to semi-formal occasions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loafer>