

LOATHER

Meaning: Loather: a person who intensely dislikes or has a strong aversion to something.

1. She was a loather of all forms of injustice, always ready to speak out against discrimination.
2. Despite his friendly demeanor, he was a loather of small talk and preferred deep conversations.
3. As a loather of chaos, she meticulously organized every aspect of her life.
4. Being a loather of failure, he worked tirelessly to ensure his project was a success.
5. Her reputation as a loather of dishonesty made her friends trust her implicitly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loather>