

LOATHINGLY

Meaning: Loathingly: in a manner expressing intense aversion or disgust.

1. She looked at the spilled food loathingly, unable to believe how careless she had been.
2. He spoke loathingly about the unfair treatment he had received at work.
3. The villain in the story loathingly plotted his revenge against those who wronged him.
4. With a loathingly grimace, she turned away from the sight of the abandoned house.
5. He loathingly remembered the betrayal that had shattered his trust in others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loathingly>