

LOB

Meaning: LOB (verb): to throw or hit a ball in a high arc, typically over an obstacle or to a partner.

1. The player executed a perfect lob over the defender's head.
 2. She decided to lob the ball gently to her partner across the net.
 3. His strategy involved a series of quick lobs to keep his opponent guessing.
 4. After a slow start, she began to master the art of the lob in her tennis game.
 5. The chef presented a beautiful dish that was a lob of pasta and fresh vegetables.
 6. The player executed a perfect lob over the goalkeeper's head to score the winning goal.
 7. During the tennis match, she surprised her opponent with a deft lob that landed just inside the baseline.
 8. He decided to lob the ball gently to his partner instead of throwing it forcefully, ensuring better control.
 9. The chef prepared a delicious lobster dish, showcasing his culinary skills at the fine dining restaurant.
 10. In basketball, a well-timed lob pass can lead to an easy dunk for the player near the rim.
 11. She decided to lob the ball gently to her partner during the game.
 12. His strategic lob caught the opponent off guard, earning him a point.
 13. The chef prepared a luscious lobster dish that was the highlight of the evening.
 14. During the tennis match, a well-timed lob secured her a spot in the finals.
 15. The player executed a perfect lob over the defender, leaving everyone in awe.
 16. During the tennis match, she decided to surprise her opponent with a well-timed lob.
 17. He used a lob shot to clear the net and put his opponent on the defensive.
 18. The chef prepared a delicious lobster bisque for the restaurant's special menu.
 19. As the sun set, the fishermen prepared their boats for a final lob of the nets.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lob>