

LOBBY

Meaning: Lobby: a large open area in a public building, such as a hotel, where people can gather, wait, or check in.

1. The hotel lobby was bustling with guests checking in and out.
2. She decided to wait for her friend in the lobby instead of going up to the room.
3. The lobby was beautifully decorated with fresh flowers and elegant furniture.
4. Activists gathered in the state capitol lobby to advocate for environmental reforms.
5. After the meeting, they discussed their strategy in the hotel lobby over coffee.
6. The hotel lobby was elegantly decorated with modern art and comfortable seating.
7. She decided to wait for her friend in the lobby rather than in the crowded café.
8. The lobby of the theater buzzed with excitement as patrons waited for the show to begin.
9. They spent hours discussing the new policy in the lobby before the meeting started.
10. The grand lobby featured a stunning chandelier that caught everyone's attention.
11. The hotel lobby was beautifully decorated for the holiday season.
12. She decided to wait in the lobby until her friend arrived.
13. The politician made a speech in the lobby to rally support for his campaign.
14. They gathered in the lobby to discuss their plans before heading out.
15. The new art installation in the lobby attracted a lot of attention from guests.