

LOBBYIST

Meaning: A lobbyist is a person who attempts to influence government decisions and legislation on behalf of a specific interest group or organization.

1. The lobbyist worked tirelessly to influence the new environmental legislation.
2. As a former politician, she had valuable connections that made her an effective lobbyist.
3. Many believe that the lobbyist's contributions to the campaign swayed the outcome of the election.
4. He spent hours meeting with lawmakers, hoping to persuade them to support his client's interests as a lobbyist.
5. The lobbyist faced criticism for his aggressive tactics in trying to secure funding for his organization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lobbyist>