LOBULAR

Meaning: LOBULAR: Adjective describing a structure that is divided into or characterized by lobes or lobule-like segments.

1. The physician noted the lobular pattern of the tumor during the examination.
2. In botany, lobular structures can be found in various plant leaves and flowers.
3. The artist used lobular shapes to create a sense of movement in her sculpture.
4. Researchers observed lobular formations in the tissue samples under the microscope.
5. The map displayed lobular regions that indicated different geological formations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lobular