

LOCK

Meaning: LOCK (noun): A mechanical device used for securing a door, chest, or other object, typically operated by a key or combination.

1. She turned the key in the lock and opened the door to her new apartment.
2. The old wooden chest was secured with a rusty lock that had not been opened in years.
3. His heart raced as he realized he had forgotten to lock the car doors before leaving.
4. They decided to install a smart lock to enhance the security of their home.
5. After the storm, they had to replace the lock on the garden shed due to water damage.
6. She secured the door with a heavy lock before leaving the house.
7. He forgot the combination to his locker and couldn't retrieve his belongings.
8. The key to success often lies in the ability to lock out distractions.
9. After a long day, she found solace in the quiet of her locked bedroom.
10. The old chest in the attic was decorated with intricate carvings around its rusty lock.
11. She turned the key in the lock, feeling a satisfying click as the door swung open.
12. The security expert advised us to install a deadbolt lock for added protection.
13. After a long day, he often found solace in the quiet of his locked study.
14. The old chest had a rusty lock that required a careful touch to open.
15. She realized she had forgotten to lock the car door before leaving the parking lot.
16. She forgot to lock the door when she left for work this morning.
17. The old chest had a rusty lock that required a special key to open.
18. He felt a sense of security knowing that the bike was safely locked to the rack.
19. During the storm, they locked themselves in the basement for safety.
20. The lock on her suitcase was broken, making it impossible to secure her belongings.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lock>