

LOCKLESS

Meaning: Lockless: adjective describing a design or system that does not use locks, allowing for easy access and reliance on alternative security measures.

1. The lockless design of the new storage unit made it easy to access without fumbling for keys.
2. In a lockless environment, trust becomes the primary security measure among users.
3. Many modern bike designs feature lockless systems that rely on GPS tracking for protection.
4. The lockless entry system at the coworking space encouraged a more collaborative atmosphere.
5. With the introduction of lockless technology, convenience has reached unprecedented levels in home security.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lockless>