

LOCKSMITH

Meaning: A locksmith is a skilled tradesperson who specializes in designing, installing, repairing, and opening locks and security systems.

1. The locksmith arrived promptly to help us regain access to our locked-out home.
2. After losing my keys, I had to call a locksmith to change the locks for security reasons.
3. She was impressed by the locksmith's ability to open the antique lock without damaging it.
4. Many people underestimate the skills required to be a successful locksmith.
5. The locksmith provided us with a variety of options for upgrading our home's security system.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/locksmith>