

LOCO

Meaning: Loco (adjective): crazy or wildly enthusiastic, often due to excitement or extreme conditions.

1. The comedian's routine was so funny that the audience went completely loco.
2. After spending hours in the sun, I felt a little loco from the heat.
3. Her passionate speech about climate change made everyone feel a bit loco with excitement.
4. He lost his keys again, and I swear he's gone loco trying to find them.
5. The kids were running around the playground, laughing and acting completely loco.
6. The carnival was a blast, with everyone dancing and celebrating like they were completely loco.
7. After staying up all night studying, I felt a bit loco during my morning class.
8. His new idea for the project seemed a little loco, but it actually turned out to be brilliant.
9. The children laughed and ran around the park, their energy making them seem delightfully loco.
10. Sometimes, you just have to embrace your loco side and do something spontaneous.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loco>