

LOCOMOTION

Meaning: Locomotion is the act or ability of moving from one place to another, often studied in the context of animals and robotics.

1. The study of locomotion in animals reveals fascinating adaptations to their environments.
2. Scientists are exploring various modes of locomotion to improve robotics and prosthetics.
3. The graceful locomotion of the cheetah makes it one of the fastest land animals.
4. Insects exhibit diverse forms of locomotion, from walking to flying and swimming.
5. Understanding human locomotion can help in developing better athletic training programs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/locomotion>