

LOCUTORY

Meaning: Locutory: a room or area in a monastery used for conversation and meetings among the monks.

1. The locutory of the monastery served as a meeting place for the monks to discuss their daily affairs.
2. She felt a sense of peace in the locutory, where the tranquil atmosphere encouraged reflection.
3. In the heart of the old library, a small locutory offered a quiet space for private conversations.
4. During the retreat, participants gathered in the locutory to share their thoughts and experiences.
5. The architect designed a beautiful locutory that blended seamlessly with the surrounding gardens.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/locutory>