

LODGEABLE

Meaning: LODGEABLE (adjective): capable of being formally submitted or filed, especially in relation to applications or complaints.

1. The application for the grant was deemed lodgeable after the committee reviewed the necessary documents.
2. Her complaint was lodgeable under the new regulations set forth by the governing body.
3. The attorney confirmed that the case was lodgeable in the appropriate court jurisdiction.
4. Given the circumstances, the appeal was considered lodgeable and proceeded to the next stage.
5. They were relieved to find that their request was lodgeable within the specified timeframe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lodgeable>