

LODGER

Meaning: Lodger: a person who rents a room or accommodation in someone else's house.

1. The lodger in the attic often kept to himself, rarely joining the family for meals.
2. When the landlord decided to take in a lodger, he never expected the arrangement to be so harmonious.
3. She found it difficult to adjust to having a lodger, as she had always lived alone.
4. The arrival of the new lodger brought an unexpected burst of energy to the quiet household.
5. After months of searching for a place to stay, he finally found a friendly lodger who welcomed him warmly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lodger>