

LODGMENT

Meaning: Lodgment refers to the formal submission or placement of a document or evidence for consideration or review.

1. The lodgment of the new evidence prompted the court to reopen the case.
2. After much deliberation, the committee approved the lodgment of the proposal for review.
3. The lodgment of the application was completed just before the deadline.
4. She carefully prepared her lodgment to ensure it met all the regulatory requirements.
5. His lodgment at the local inn provided a much-needed respite during the long journey.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lodgment>