

LOGGERHEAD

Meaning: Loggerhead: a state of disagreement or conflict between two parties.

1. The two friends found themselves at loggerheads over the best approach to the project.
2. Despite their shared goals, the committee members were at loggerheads during the meeting.
3. The ongoing debate in the town about the new park design has left the residents at loggerheads.
4. After hours of discussion, they realized they were at loggerheads and needed a mediator.
5. The loggerhead turtle is known for its distinctive large head and strong jaws.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loggerhead>