

LOGGERHEADED

Meaning: Loggerheaded: characterized by stubbornness or disagreement, often over trivial issues.

1. The two friends often found themselves loggerheaded over trivial matters, which amused their other companions.
2. Despite their loggerheaded debates, they shared a deep respect for each other's opinions.
3. The committee members were loggerheaded about the project's direction, leading to heated discussions.
4. In their loggerheaded exchanges, they occasionally unearthed innovative solutions to their problems.
5. The loggerheaded nature of their arguments only strengthened their bond as they learned to navigate their differences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loggerheaded>