

LOGICAL

Meaning: LOGICAL: Relating to reasoning based on clear, sound principles or a coherent sequence of ideas.

1. Her argument was so well-structured that it was impossible to dispute its logical conclusions.
2. In a logical progression, the story unfolded, revealing the clues one by one.
3. He took a logical approach to problem-solving, breaking the issue down into manageable parts.
4. The scientist emphasized the importance of using logical reasoning to draw accurate conclusions from the data.
5. It is logical to assume that if it rains, the ground will be wet afterwards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/logical>