

LOGICIAN

Meaning: A logician is a person who studies or specializes in logic, particularly in the analysis and evaluation of arguments and reasoning.

1. The logician meticulously examined the arguments to identify any fallacies.
2. Her lectures on formal logic captivated students and sparked lively debates about the nature of truth.
3. As a renowned logician, he published several influential papers on the principles of deductive reasoning.
4. The logician's ability to break down complex problems into simpler components was truly impressive.
5. In his latest book, the logician explored the intersection of mathematics and philosophy in decision-making.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/logician>