

LOGMAN

Meaning: Logman: a person who works with logs or timber, often involved in cutting, stacking, or transporting wood.

1. The logman skillfully stacked the timber to prepare for winter.
2. After a long day of work, the logman rested by the fire, reflecting on his labor.
3. Every spring, the logman would venture into the forest to gather fresh supplies.
4. With an eye for quality, the logman selected only the finest logs for construction.
5. The logman's expertise in woodworking was evident in the craftsmanship of his creations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/logman>